

This nature sanctuary quest was written by poet Judith Steinbergh for the Hall's Pond Learning Project, a special program developed by the Friends of Halls Pond to help Brookline teachers, students and other residents learn about and appreciate their local natural environment. If you would like to receive copies of quests for other Brookline sanctuaries, or would be interested in writing your own quest, please call the Hall's Pond Learning Project at 617-277-4777 or email us at HallsPondLearning@hotmail.com

Directions to Griggs Park

Griggs Park is located between Brookline Village and Washington Square. Take Washington Street from Brookline Village, past the intersection with Cypress Street. Go several blocks and take a right onto Griggs Terrace. The park is on the corner of Griggs Road and Griggs Terrace. Enter the park from the gate near the swings to begin your quest.
