

Muddy River Restoration Project

Status as of Oct. 1, 2015 Completion scheduled for spring, 2016.

Riverway outlet. Closeup of wingwall faced with granite veneer, and "grapevine" masonry pointing.

Upper Fens Pond – many trees have been protected during construction

Upper Fens Pond shrubs waiting to be planted. Over 8,000 plants are specified for Phase 1. Here, over 200 fragrant sumac which attract birds and butterflies are awaiting planting this fall.

Riverway connector to Park Drive being constructed.

Pumps used to divert river around Upper Fens Pond. Pumps have a capacity of 44,000 gallons/minute.

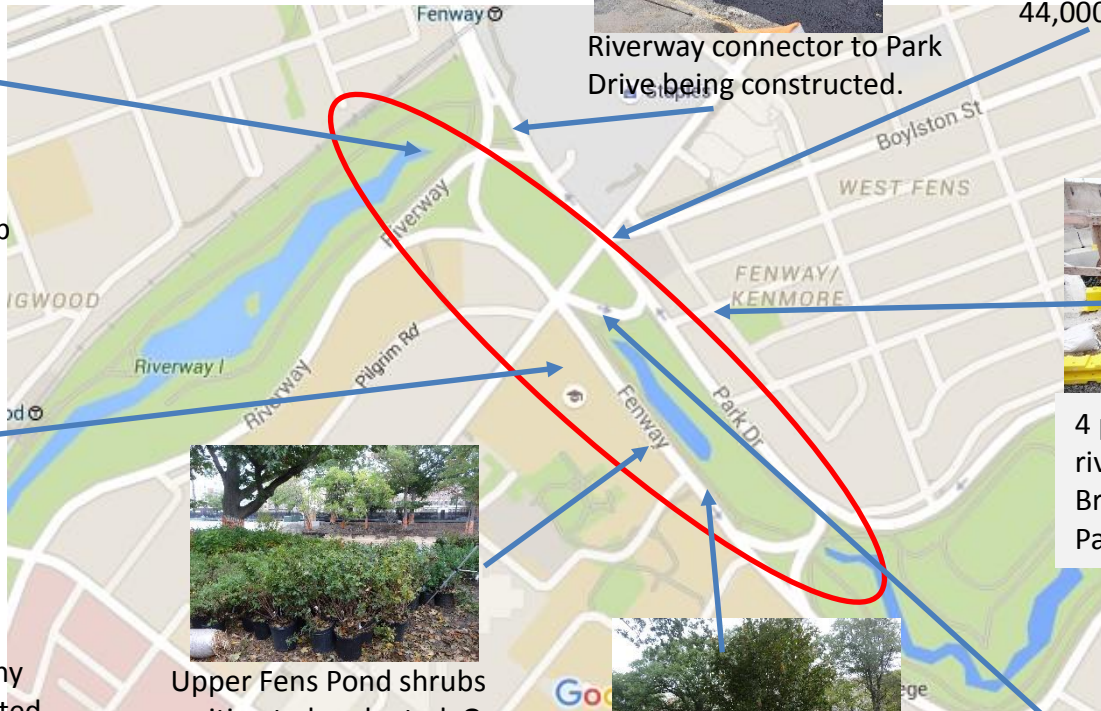

4 pipes are used to divert river water 2/10 mile from Brookline Ave. to Ave. Louis Pasteur during construction.

Upper Fens Pond from upstream culvert at "jughandle" road near Brookline Ave.

Upper Fens Pond - one of 15 sugar maples and over 200 trees specified for planting in Phase 1 area.

 Phase 1 area